Pavorable Reports From the Quarters of Corbett and Jackson—Jim Hall Growing Very Stout—Two Disappointed Pagillats—Slavin and Mitchell.

Although the Corbett-Jackson mill is nearly x weeks away, it is being talked of all over the country. Jackson is doing his work from los Diever's house, on the San Leandro road. where Godfrey trained for Kilrain, and a reporter who went out there week before last learned that the colored puglist was laid up in bed with malaria. On last Monday, how-ever, the doctors appointed by the California Club reported to the directors that both men were sound and well, and capable of getting into fighting form. Corbett had been "dieting" for several weeks before entering hard work, and he says that if he is whipped it will not and he says that if he is whipped it will not some through any lack of preparation. Jackson has his old trainer. Fitzpatrick, with him. Corbott has John Donaldson and Jim Hall. President Fulds is quoted as saying that the purse in this match will be the last large one that the California Club will offer. He seems to think that other clubs will also lower their scale of prices. Troy, Hoboken, and New Orleans will have to be heard from on this subject, however, before the reduction takes place, not to mention that bustling organiza-tion in the little town of Astoria, Oregon, with its $17,000 record-beater. Fitzelmmons and Hall haven't come to terms vet. Fitzsimmons has still eight weeks of his show contract to fulfil, and he has repeatedly said that he intended to make an extended stay in England after he got through his presstay in England after he got through his present American trip. He has a sharp manager, and it is not likely that he will be permitted to run any risk of being whipped before the public sponge is squeezed dry. If this view is correct, these middle weights may not meet at all, at least in this country, for it is easi that Hail is gaining so much flesh under the influence of the Pacific coast dimate that he will soon be unable to compete at 154 pounds, or anywhere near it. Hail may take on Reddy Gallagher for a aix-round go. George La Blanche, has invited Hail to a six-round bout in Ogden, and Joe Harris, who is doing the talking for the Australian, appears rather to favor this idea.

After the Kirain-Godfrey battle in San Francisco, the old directors of the Occidental A. U. got together and discussed the advisability of reorganizing. They concluded that boxing was to be generally allowed in the city, and have since been perfecting plans for another campaign. They have no latantich of mixing with the California Club, but will give exhibitions on nights that the larger club has no use for. They will have consestants who will not demand very large prizes, and will charge moderate admission fees, so that others than millionaires can attend. It has been already proposed to bring Billy Armstrong and Billy Akors toxether.

If Frank Blavin and Charley Mitchell carry out their present programme they will be in nt American trip. He has a sharp manager.

millionaires can ateau. It as been and Bully proposed to bring Bully Armstrong and Bully Akors together.

If Frank Slavin and Charley Mitchell carry out their present programme they will be in New York very shortly, as they have advertised themselves to sail from the other side on April 15. It will be fun to hear one or the other of these worthies, or, perhaps, both in unison, announce that little Johanny Sullivan can have several thousand dollars if he will stand before the Australian for about haif a dozen rounds. They have talked pretty loud before starting out; let us listen to twhat they will shout when they resen the land of their prey. Jake hilrain says that if Blavin repeats, after reaching America, his offer to him of $5,000 for a six-round go he will scoept it so quickly that there will be no time to withdraw after it is once made known. Bulldoon states that he will be glad to accommodate Mitchell with a $2,500 bet on the outside when Blavin undertakes the aport of doing Jake in alx rounds.

side when Blavin undertakes the sport of doing Jake in alx rounds.
Australians stand by their champion bravely. For instance, the Bydney Referee, in comparing Blavin to Corbett, says:

"Til allow that Corbett is far and away the trickiest sam. I'll allow that he has sen mayes to Paddy's one. I'll admit that he is four times as quick. But on the other side there's an account that reads well for our man. Slavin bits a tump harder than the American, tith both hands. He is a million times a gamer man than the American, and he fights in just the very sayle terrack Cerbett on putch, for the latter is a good long yauge, scientific righter, but when Paddy looks at him with those black brown of his drawn hard down and his teeth set in his old unity grip, and then sails for him like the set in his old unity grip, and then sails for him like How does that writer know that Slavin is more than Corbett? Where did he or anyoldy else, see or heav of a test that proved Corbett to be without the right sort of a heari? and if black-browed and testh-set looks have to much to do with winning a fight, where would Slavin be if he met John L. Sullivan inide of a ring?

would Slavin be if he met John L. Sullivan inside of a ring!
The New Orleans people have taken up Andy Bowen again. After he flunked out of a match with Austin Gibbops they declared that all reputable clubs should disquaitly him. All the same, the Clympic Club has offered $3,000 for Bowen and Billy Myer, and the match is set for May 19. The weight will be 184 pounds.
It may be that certain New Orleansites have set to work to have Bowen thrashed. There was much talk of that kind just after the Gibbons incident. But it seems odd that Myer should have been selected to perform the task for Bowen has already whipped the Streator man, and for a long time after that fight New Orleans was almost unanimous in the opinion that Bowen could repeat the dose. The whole

Orleaus was almost unanimous in the opinion that Howen could repeat the dose. The whole business has a strange comblexion.

Maber, the light weight, and Willis, the light weight, who came up from Australia with Jim Hall, have been unable to get on matches, and begin to tire. At one time it was said that Maber was to be put assainst Howen. Willis is particularly sore. He has supported his mother and wife for some time, and they depend upon what Abe can do in the boxing business to live. Willis came to America on the advice of some of his Sydney friends, who assured him that he could win big money by so doing, but after he had been in California awhile, and found himself unable to send any cash home, his mother discovered that she was in want. The Sydney sports arranged a benealt for Mrs. Willis, Hr. The entertainment netted a good sum, but when Willis got back to Frisco, after a trip northwardly, he first heard of his relatives distress, and became downhearted. This feeling was aggravated when the Dixon-McCarthy mill was brought off. The California Club officials were satisfied in their own minds that the match would never be allowed to take place in Troy, and determined to send for Dixon to meet Willis as soon as it was declared postboned. When the pews came that it had been pulled off there was great surprise and disappointment in Bas Prancisco. Prancisco.

It may turn out that Austin and Jim Gibbons will come home from England without a match. When they made arrangements to go take on Jem Carney. Bill Reader, or Overton, Since then Carney has been matched with Dick Burge, and a match between Reader and Bill Baxter seems likely. Only Overton is left, and it is doubtful if he can get backing enough to suit the Gibbonses.

Bob Cook and the Yale Crew. NEW HATEN, April 12.—In criticising the crew last night Capt. Cook said: "I cannot as yet form an opinion of the crew, for they, are as you might say simply new beginners. They are a heavy lot of meah emplowered with great screening, and it depends whether we shall be able to utilise it. It is too early yet to make any predictions. I will say, however, that they show a willingness to row that is seldom equalled either in a new crew or even as old one; time will tell whether their willingness to row will prove benedicia. They seem to be doing well, but it will require an immense amount of bractice to put them in a proper condition. As to individual work some of them are progressing much faster than others but the rudiments have yet to be measiesed.

"As to the make-up of the crew I cannot say, for I do not know. I shall come to New Haven again very soon. I cannot say when, at the present time, for I have my business to attend to."

Mall Beats Dewhurst at Quoits. The veteran queit pitcher. Thomas Dewhurst, who has a standing challenge to play any man of his age in this country, was obliged to succumb yesterday to Joseph Mali. a North of England man, a much yeunger and more powerful player at the distance pitched, in a and more powerful player at the distance pitched, in a match for $50. The contest took place at Richard White's rink, Court street, Brooklyn, and quite a collection of admirers of the sport was present John MoFarland, the champlou long distance pitcher of New Tork and Brooklyn, was a looker on, and when asked Tora and Breeklyn, was a looker on, and when asked why he did not have a "go" at Hall replied: "I did not have a chance."

The sensitions of the match yesterday were: Sintymae points up; ten yards distance, with a three-foot deppins mars in front of each pin: stiff-sticking clay adds pins two and a half inches above the clay; measurements to be taken from the centre of the top of the jan. Beatherst won the toes for oboice of quests. He had his favorite sine-pounders. Hall used about a sixpound guest. the dois faverite size pounders. Hail used about a sixpound quelt.
The pliching of both men at the outset was steady and brilliant. The quoits laid se close to the pine that mathements were frequently taken. I took an hour takes there were to the second of the pine that raine there were to the second of the second of the second laid being in the lead. From this point, here ever, law harrs fell off considerably in his delivery, his leads being far off the mars. Halt took matters very ceelly, and while an utter stranger to many of the eld experts present, he quickly showed himself to be a russter at the game-certainly at the distance. Toward the initer part of the game he became a fittle wild, but the veterah failed to take advantage of the chances offered and was finally beaton after two and a helf beurs play by a score of 01 to 62.

Both men were aby coached James Hetrick acting for Bewhurst and James Williams for Hall. Blobard
